

SPAIN'S OFFERS TO CUBA.

CANDIAS SAYS HE THINKS CUBANS WILL LIKE THE REFORMS.

THE PRESIDENT ASKS SPAIN TO REFORM THE CONSTITUTION. SPAIN HAS OFFERED TO REFORM THE CONSTITUTION. SPAIN HAS OFFERED TO REFORM THE CONSTITUTION.

MADRID, Jan. 20.—At the last cabinet council the Queen Regent gave her approval to a scheme of reforms for Cuba. "The reforms," Premier Canovés said to the reporters, "will not be established immediately, but I do not wish to have everything ready when the moment comes. I feel confident that an opportunity will soon present itself. The reforms will be simple, and more liberal than those which have been decreed for Porto Rico, and I expect that they will satisfy the Cubans. Spain will do this of her own free will. It is absolutely false that there is an understanding between the Spanish Government and the United States."

Referring to the United States, he said: "It appears, according to what some of the Ministers say, that the decree establishing the reforms in Cuba will be published within a few weeks at most. A meeting of the Cortes will then be convened. Judge by Gen. Weyler's reports, the Government believes the insurrection will be confined, within four weeks, to the east of the Juana-Morón trough. There are persons, however, who ask if Gen. Weyler intends to make a march through the provinces of Havana, Matanzas, and Santa Clara, in order to announce that those provinces have been pacified, as he did in Pinar del Rio. He would be a day's journey without fighting. Others would like to know if there is any relation between the establishment of reforms in Cuba and the coming inauguration of Major McKinley as President of the United States."

Several newspapers say the reforms do not include the change of the Government. When that question is solved by Cuba herself when the new regime shall be enforced. The Ministerial Press, which is now a reformist as the more liberal newspapers, says that the Pope has requested the Spanish Government to give the reforms to Cuba. The reforms, it is said, are in harmony with the spirit of the times, so that those islands may enjoy the blessings of peace.

The leading editorial on Jan. 17, under the heading "Sad Prospects," said: "The Ministers who are the authors of this reform, we are sure, should be well aware that we are throwing into a bottomless well the flower of our youth, the savings of the country, the present and the future of Spain. Sacrifices come one after another. The money from the national loan is almost exhausted and a new loan is proposed, according to the same plan, to raise our securities to go higher, for the same reason, perhaps, that a more welcome the richer the nation will be for a pauper's sum to spend a few hundred dollars."

A leading editorial on Jan. 17, under the heading "Sad Prospects," said: "The Ministers who are the authors of this reform, we are sure, should be well aware that we are throwing into a bottomless well the flower of our youth, the savings of the country, the present and the future of Spain. Sacrifices come one after another. The money from the national loan is almost exhausted and a new loan is proposed, according to the same plan, to raise our securities to go higher, for the same reason, perhaps, that a more welcome the richer the nation will be for a pauper's sum to spend a few hundred dollars."

At an interview with the editor of El Liberal the President said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times.

There are many who believe that the reforms are a reaction to the insurrection, but the President says that the reforms are a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

THE CASE OF THE THREE FRIENDS.

Attorney-General Harmon Declines to Proceed Against the Steamer as a Pirate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.—Attorney-General Harmon today instructed the United States District Attorney at Havana to proceed against the steamer Three Friends, a pirate.

The prosecution will be against the vessel and not against her officers and crew, in accordance with section 4,297 of the Revised Statutes, which reads as follows: "Any vessel built, purchased, fitted out in whole or in part, or held for the purpose of being employed in the commission of any piratical aggression, search, restraint, depredation, or seizure, or in the commission of any other act of piracy as defined by the law of nations, shall be liable to be captured and brought into any port of the United States, and the vessel and her cargo shall be forfeited to the United States, whether the vessel shall have actually sailed upon any piratical expedition or not, and whether any act of piracy shall have been committed or attempted upon or from such vessel or not, and any such vessel shall be liable to be captured and brought into any port of the United States, whether the vessel shall have actually sailed upon any piratical expedition or not, and whether any act of piracy shall have been committed or attempted upon or from such vessel or not."

The purpose of the Attorney-General in bringing the prosecution is largely to test the opinion recently given by Judge Locke of the United States Court at Jacksonville in the case of the Three Friends. In discharging her officers from custody, Judge Locke held that there was no state of war in Cuba, and that the Three Friends were therefore entitled to the protection of the law. According to the understanding at the Department of Justice, this opinion clearly made the Three Friends amenable to prosecution for piracy, granting that the statements made through certain New York newspapers are true, that the vessel was engaged in piracy.

No one here, however, believes that the Three Friends were engaged in piracy. The vessel was engaged in piracy, according to the understanding at the Department of Justice, this opinion clearly made the Three Friends amenable to prosecution for piracy, granting that the statements made through certain New York newspapers are true, that the vessel was engaged in piracy.

The Ministerial Press, which is now a reformist as the more liberal newspapers, says that the Pope has requested the Spanish Government to give the reforms to Cuba. The reforms, it is said, are in harmony with the spirit of the times, so that those islands may enjoy the blessings of peace.

At an interview with the editor of El Liberal the President said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

FOES IN WEYLER'S REAR.

CUBANS MAKE THINGS LIVELY IN HAVANA PROVINCE.

It is said that Weyler will return to protect the Capital—A Cuban Prisoner Hears Himself to Escape Further Torture—An Insurgent Appointed Mayor of Havana.

HAVANA, Feb. 1.—It is said here that Gen. Weyler will return to Havana in view of the great activity of the insurgents in this province and the plans attributed to Gen. Ruler Rivera for dealing a hard blow to Spain at the very doors of the capital.

Since his arrival in the Havana province from Pinar del Rio, Rivera has been organizing the Cuban forces in such a way as to give serious uneasiness to the Spanish authorities.

Yesterday Gen. Weyler and the Marquis de Abudama were in constant communication, and facts about the suspicious movements of the Cubans, now concentrating under Rivera's command, were transmitted to the Spanish Commander-in-Chief. The opinion among many well-informed Spaniards here is that Weyler's march to the east, to assure the pacification of Havana, was premature, and that he deprived the rest of the island of the troops necessary to check the bold attacks of the insurgents.

The Cuban General, Donato Canales, narrowly escaped being assassinated by a Spaniard named Peco Diaz, who was paid for that purpose, as is generally believed here, by Gov. Pueras, under the instructions of Weyler.

The chief engineer of the train to Havana, however, some days ago after a Cuban's attempt to kidnap him, was told that he was supposed to be in jail, because he had been arrested in his cell in that train, because he could no longer endure the cruel treatment he suffered at the hands of the Spaniards. The poor man was tortured every day in order to get him to confess to having been a spy.

News came from Matanzas of a serious engagement between the Cuban forces and the Spanish troops. The Cuban forces, under the command of Gen. Canales, were defeated, and the Spanish troops, under the command of Gen. Canales, were victorious.

At an interview with the editor of El Liberal the President said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times. He said that the reforms were not a reaction to the insurrection, but a result of the progress of the times.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

Neither do they care particularly for a republican form of government. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States. They are not interested in the United States, but only in the United States.

COFFERS IN EXHIBITS.

A Dispute Over Their Price Between Them Before a Brooklyn Justice.

"What are those things?" asked Justice Xen in the City Hall Court, Brooklyn, yesterday, when two men carried in large bundles.

"They are caskets, your Honor," said the court officer. "I'm in the habit of taking legal inquiries," said the Justice, "but I do not care to enquire on the Coroner's jurisdiction."

Jacob Morgenstern is a lumber dealer and cabinet-maker at 294 Schermerhorn street, and he and Peter B. Rogers of 202 Prospect place were yesterday before Justice Xen.

Mr. Morgenstern testified that when Mr. Rogers ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

Mr. Rogers testified that when he ordered the two caskets he said that he was very particular in having them made. The caskets were to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case, which was to be placed in Wood's case.

RELIGIOUS REVIVALS.

PRESIDENT JORDAN OF STANFORD DENOUNCES THEM.

He Says Some Revivals Are a Form of Drunkenness No More Worthy of Respect Than the Drunkenness That Lies in the Gutters—Temporary Insanity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 1.—President Jordan of Stanford University has high opinion of religious revivals, which he declares are a species of intoxication that are no more worthy of respect than common drunkenness. His remarks were made in the course of a sermon yesterday before the Unitarian Society of Berkeley, the San Francisco University.

He opened his address by reading from Job and the "Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam, and then after enlarging on the destructiveness of the pessimistic school, which he attributed to education without action or aim in life, he said: "Wisdom means knowing what to do next; virtue means doing what is right; and religion, as well as religion, means telling men how to grow better. Those who have studied much and grow little suffer from mental despondency. The degeneracy of ideas that comes from a superfluity of ideas not carried out into action, is a very real danger to the human race. This is the deepest danger. Such were the ravages in his distorted life."

Whiskey, cocaine, and alcohol bring temporary insanity, and so does a revival of religion, one of those religious revivals which have their origin in their reason and self-control. This is simply a form of drunkenness, no more worthy of respect than the drunkenness that lies in the gutters. The high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization, and the high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization, and the high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization."

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

RELIGIOUS REVIVALS.

PRESIDENT JORDAN OF STANFORD DENOUNCES THEM.

He Says Some Revivals Are a Form of Drunkenness No More Worthy of Respect Than the Drunkenness That Lies in the Gutters—Temporary Insanity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 1.—President Jordan of Stanford University has high opinion of religious revivals, which he declares are a species of intoxication that are no more worthy of respect than common drunkenness. His remarks were made in the course of a sermon yesterday before the Unitarian Society of Berkeley, the San Francisco University.

He opened his address by reading from Job and the "Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam, and then after enlarging on the destructiveness of the pessimistic school, which he attributed to education without action or aim in life, he said: "Wisdom means knowing what to do next; virtue means doing what is right; and religion, as well as religion, means telling men how to grow better. Those who have studied much and grow little suffer from mental despondency. The degeneracy of ideas that comes from a superfluity of ideas not carried out into action, is a very real danger to the human race. This is the deepest danger. Such were the ravages in his distorted life."

Whiskey, cocaine, and alcohol bring temporary insanity, and so does a revival of religion, one of those religious revivals which have their origin in their reason and self-control. This is simply a form of drunkenness, no more worthy of respect than the drunkenness that lies in the gutters. The high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization, and the high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization, and the high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization."

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

RELIGIOUS REVIVALS.

PRESIDENT JORDAN OF STANFORD DENOUNCES THEM.

He Says Some Revivals Are a Form of Drunkenness No More Worthy of Respect Than the Drunkenness That Lies in the Gutters—Temporary Insanity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 1.—President Jordan of Stanford University has high opinion of religious revivals, which he declares are a species of intoxication that are no more worthy of respect than common drunkenness. His remarks were made in the course of a sermon yesterday before the Unitarian Society of Berkeley, the San Francisco University.

He opened his address by reading from Job and the "Rubaiyat" of Omar Khayyam, and then after enlarging on the destructiveness of the pessimistic school, which he attributed to education without action or aim in life, he said: "Wisdom means knowing what to do next; virtue means doing what is right; and religion, as well as religion, means telling men how to grow better. Those who have studied much and grow little suffer from mental despondency. The degeneracy of ideas that comes from a superfluity of ideas not carried out into action, is a very real danger to the human race. This is the deepest danger. Such were the ravages in his distorted life."

Whiskey, cocaine, and alcohol bring temporary insanity, and so does a revival of religion, one of those religious revivals which have their origin in their reason and self-control. This is simply a form of drunkenness, no more worthy of respect than the drunkenness that lies in the gutters. The high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization, and the high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization, and the high school of civilization is that we do the defects of our civilization."

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.

President Jordan is an evolutionist, but the first time he has been so plain in his religious denunciations. It is the more notable because he is a Unitarian, and Unitarianism is a sect that believes most firmly in revivals.